

RISK ASSESSMENT - MARC BREW COMPANY

General/Production:	Nocturne at Wales Millennium Centre					Non-Performance Related
Date:	25/26 June 2011					Process Stage
a) Identify Hazard (e.g. low ceiling, explosion, carry heavy object)						DESIGN
b) Identify Risk (e.g. banging head, blast injury, back strain)						TECHNICAL ANALYSIS/CONSTR
c) Who might be harmed						REHEARSAL
d) Minimisation - action required or implemented						PERFORMANCE	X	2. There has been significant change
e) Recommend Action / Record Assessment / Review						GET IN / FIT UP / STRIKE	X	3. Following an accident or incident
						Risk Factor
						Impact (1-5) x Probability (1-5) = Risk factor (1-25)
Item / Incident / Activity	Nature of Hazard / Risk	Degree of Risk	I	P	R.F	Who might be harmed	Minimisation	Recommendation	Review
		High / Medium / Low				Groups of people who are especially at risk from significant hazards identified	Existing controls or where information on controls may be found / Action Implemented
Get Ins /Outs unloading/loading of van	Back Injury, Splinters, Collision, Damage to van	Low	3	1	3	Marc Brew Co staff and venue staff	Company to carry only what they are able, to have assistance when necessary. Caution to be taken carrying larger objects.
Beds roller into or hitting audience	Hand/foot/other injury	Low	3	1	3	Audience	Adequate space for performance must be given. Please refer to tech spec.
Beds hitting audience who have strayed into performance area	General injury	Medium	3	2	6	Audience, performer	Minimum of 3 stewards must be provided. Barriers or rope must clearly define performance area
Injury to performer	Fall	Low	3	2	6	Performers	Performers have rehearsed all movements and no unnecessary risks are taken
Injury	General injury, trips etc	Low	3	1	3	Performers and all staff	Site must be hard and flat and swept before event as dancers are barefoot.
Fire	Serious injury, death	Low	5	1	5	Performers, Venue Staff, Audience	No flames are used in this production, set is not at risk from catching fire. All participants to be inducted on site upon arrival by venue staff. Site to be provided with fire extinguisher.
Form completed by:	Joe Hornsby					Other comments:
Job Title:	Production Manager					Please advise of any additional Health and Safety requirements specific to your venue
Form checked by:	Joanne Peters
Job Title:	Production Assistant
Date:	11.04.11
Date:	12.04.11
Discussed at H&S meeting date:									